

Sales Associate, part-time

Do you enjoy art, craft, and people, too? Are you great in retail sales and/or customer service? Bullseye Glass Co. seeks a part-time (10-20 hours/week including weekends) Sales Associate to join the team at its Resource Center in Portland, OR. The Resource Center is a synthesis of retail store offering art-glass supplies and a teaching studio helping customers to work with the products. The Sales Associate will sell Bullseye products and classes, create in-store displays and educational samples, receive and manage inventory, and assist in the daily running of the store.

The qualified candidate will be a well-organized problem solver with excellent communication skills who has at least 2 years of retail sales or customer service experience and pays close attention to detail. Additional skills that are helpful are: having hands-on experience in the arts with an emphasis in ceramics, glass; having knowledge of art history and aesthetics. Knowledge of Microsoft Office programs preferred.
