

CRAVE MORE COLORFUL SURROUNDINGS?

Bullseye Glass Co. seeks a part-time (12-18 hours/week) Retail Stockperson to join the team at its Resource Center in Portland, OR.

The Resource Center is a synthesis of retail store offering art-glass supplies and a teaching studio helping customers to work with glass. The Stockperson will receive, manage and stock inventory.

We are seeking a dedicated and organized Stockperson to join our team in a dynamic retail environment. The Stockperson will be responsible for ensuring that products are properly stocked, displayed, and available for customers. This role requires strong attention to detail and excellent customer service skills to enhance the shopping experience. The qualified candidate will be well-organized, work with minimal supervision, have excellent communication skills, some warehouse, retail or customer service experience.

Additional skills that are helpful are: Must be able to lift up to 50 lbs frequently, climb up and down ladders, work with minimal supervision, attention to detail, and a positive attitude.

Join our team as a Stockperson and contribute to creating an enjoyable shopping experience for our customers while developing your skills in warehouse and retail operations!
